Selling points

Our own developed products help contribute to the promotion of digital transformation, improvement of efficiency, and reduction of man-hours for manufacturers, especially major automakers, such as Honda and Toyota.

Technology / Product details

(1) "Conandesse" waveform analyzer

The Conandesse waveform analyzer can verify repeatability, detect abnormalities, and manage trends.

Dedicated software or cloud server is not needed.
Easy connection with an existing system

(2) "Conanair" Wi-Fi vibration sensor

Conanair is a versatile and easy-to-use battery-powered small Wi-Fi vibration sensor. Equipped with an acceleration sensor with a range of 1 kHz ± 16G, it only costs 30,000 yen, providing well-received cost effectiveness. Conanair monitors the health status of equipment as if a doctor applied a stethoscope.

Both cyclic and fully automatic measurement is supported.

Adopted by many major companies!
